MISS KLUMPKE IN HER FIRST CONCERT HERE

Miss Julia Klumpke, the violinist of a family of remarkable women, was presented to a splendid audience last evening at the Alexander Young Hotel pavilion by the Morning Music Club.

Miss Klumpke was assisted by Mrs. Alan White, soprano, and Miss Margaret Clarke, accompanist. Mrs. White sang four selections, two numbers, and added greatly to the debt of obligation she has placed the music loving community under—a debt which was enthusiastically acknowledged last night by long continued applause following her first number. This consisted of three selections, "Dreams," by Wagner; "I Love Thee," by Grieg, and "Les Filles de Cadix," by Delibes. In this number Mrs. White accompanied herself. In her second number, the "Jewel Song From Faust," she was accompanied by Miss Clarke.

Miss Klumpke's first number was a Grieg Sonata, Opus 8, three movements, Allegro con brio, Allegretto quasi andantino, and Allegro molto vivace. Miss Klumpke was not at her best in this number. In the Ries Suite, allemanda, intermezzo, and gavotte, the last two movements were given with much vivacity and charm. So too was the Rubenstein-Wienawski "Romance," and especially was it so of the Brahms-Joachim Hungarian Dance. Miss Klumpke excels in her rendition of this class of music. Her other number was "Fantasie Appassionata," by Vieuxtemps.

Miss Clarke's accompaniments, as always were admirable.

ORPHEUM IN NEW DRESS OPENS MONDAY

When the Orpheum throws open its doors to the public tomorrow evening, the theater patrons will see this popular resort in its new dress. Manager Cohen has had a corps of carpenters making alterations, and painters decorating for the past week, and the theater presents a cozy appearance. The Lumley company and Mr. Richard Buhler present Amelia Bingham's lasting success, "The Climbers," for the opening attraction. It is a society comedy, bubbling over with humor and strong dramatic situations. Several pleasing specialties will be introduced between acts.

"The Climbers" will be repeated Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and at the Wednesday matinee. On Thursday evening "A Soldier of Fortune" will be produced for the first time here. Both plays call for the entire strength of the company.

Patrons desiring to reserve seats for the season or any part of it can do so by phoning or calling at the box office any time between 9 a. m. and 10 p. m. By doing this now, the patron is assured of the same seat at every change of play, and the only formality necessary is handing in the name and location desired to the treasurer of the theater.

COOKE IS APPOINTED.

Governor Frear has appointed Clarence H. Cooke to take the place of J. A. Gilman on the Liquor License Commission.

JAPANESE GRATITUDE.

"There are people who rail against the Jap," said Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, the other day, "but there are some things about the Yankies of the past which might be copied by their collaborators, gratitude, for instance. Do a favor for a Japanese and life is not long enough to express his appreciation. There is Baron Takahira, now the ambassador from Japan. Someone told me the other day that when he was a stripling he served at the legation here and boarded with a woman who is now entering her 90th year. She was good to the young Oriental, mended his clothing, gave him good advice and, best of all, would cook little dishes for him after eastern recipes. He was called away to other fields of labor and no doubt found other friends there, for he is a likeable fellow and he counts his admirers by scores in every part of this country. "But mark the behavior of that Japanese. Every Christmas, every birthday of that woman he has remembered after the lapse of these 30-40 years to stock an Oriental bazaar, rare, exquisite paintings, embroidered crepe until his old friend has almost enough to stock an Oriental bazaar. This old lady, who comes from excellent New England parentage, lives a long distance from Washington, and a man as busy as Baron Takahira might be excused from making personal calls. But he is as punctilious in making his call on his former landlady as on the wife of the cabinet minister. He makes his visit just as soon as he comes to Washington, and during his residence there are few weeks that flowers or some dainty eatable does not find its way to her home. Gratitude with us, says the cynic, is a lively sense of favors to come. With the Japanese gentleman, of whom Baron Takahira is so high a type, gratitude is the genuine attribute which Holy Writ counts among the rarest of human virtues."

Mr. Howard Hedemann, who has been away for a six weeks' trip, returned in the Alameda.

Miss Fox, a daughter of Sir Douglas Fox, is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Clive Davies at Craigside. Miss Fox recently came from the Orient.

A most attractive luncheon was given by Mrs. Dickey, of Nuuanu avenue on Tuesday, in honor of Mrs. Aiken, of Hawaii. Crimson carnations and maidenhair ferns formed the centerpiece. The guests included Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. Restarick, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Atherton, Miss Anna Paris, Mrs. Pratt, Mrs. J. P. Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hedemann gave a pleasant little dinner on Thursday evening at their Waikiki bungalow in honor of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Marx, who soon depart for a two years' trip

THE CLASS OF 1908, AT OAHU COLLEGE.

SOCIETY

Miss Florence, daughter of Charles Deskey, who has been studying on the mainland for the past eighteen months, returned from Denver on Friday and is domiciled with her father at the Seaside pending the fitting of a residence Mr. Deskey recently purchased.

Miss Agnes Eldora Shaw, daughter of S. C. Shaw, the well known Hilo business man, was married on Friday afternoon last to Robert Brown, the ceremony being performed by Judge Lorrin A. Andrews. The bridegroom, who is an engineer by profession, hails from Chicago. He has decided to take up lands in Hawaii, in the Hamakua district, and will commence farming operations there in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will leave for their new home this week.—Hilo Tribune, June 16.

E. V. Wilcox, who is to succeed Jared G. Smith as director of the local Experiment Station, was an arriving passenger in the Manchuria.

Mrs. Moses, wife of Lt.-Com. Moses, U. S. N., who is at present on the U. S. S. Georgia, arrived in the Manchuria. Lt.-Com. Moses succeeds Lt. Carter at the Naval Station.

The marriage of Miss Adele Morgan, eldest daughter of James F. Morgan, to John Fleming, will take place on September 2.

Mrs. Parsons, wife of Capt. J. K. Parsons, 20th Infantry, Fort Shafter, arrived in the transport Buford Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Wilcox celebrated the tenth anniversary of their wedding last Saturday by inviting some forty friends to a pot supper, and now they have a supply of tinware that with ordinary care will last them until it is replaced with silverware fifteen years hence.

George C. Bowen, Lieutenant 20th Infantry, arrived from the Coast in the Buford.

Mrs. Frank Andrade, looking very much better than before she left for the Coast, arrived home in the Manchuria Monday.

Prince and Princess Kalamanaole, Colonel and Mrs. Samuel Parker, the Misses Campbell and ex-Governor John T. Baker arrived home in the Manchuria Monday, with the remains of the late Prince David Kawanakoa.

Mr. Howard Hedemann, who has been away for a six weeks' trip, returned in the Alameda.

Miss Fox, a daughter of Sir Douglas Fox, is a guest of her cousin, Mrs. Clive Davies at Craigside. Miss Fox recently came from the Orient.

Watch and Wait All Night Long

park there were hundreds gathered, mostly Hawaiians.

In a body, the members of the Kahuamau Society marched to the Capitol about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, entering the throne room and passing around the bier for a last look. There were also many men, from the U. S. battleships Maine and Alabama and the cruiser St. Louis, who visited the throne room and the town people included those of all walks of life, all races, creeds and opinions.

In the afternoon, when orders were given that the stream of visitors should cease, there were still many calling though they were refused admittance. At 2 o'clock this afternoon will commence the funeral ceremonies and until then the guards and kahili bearers, male chanters and players upon stringed instruments will continue to stand watches, relieved at intervals, and the Capitol will be given over to the Hawaiian royal dead whence the soul has fled.

There will be thousands on the streets today to witness the procession to the mausoleum and in the crowds will be seen people of all nationalities, though Hawaiians will be the greater proportion.

A shooting party, putting up at Amos Libby's Maine camp, found their sport much interfered with by rain. Still, fine or wet, the old-fashioned barometer that hung in Amos's general room persistently pointed to "set fair." At last one of the party drew his attention to the glass. "Don't you think now, Amos," he said, "there's something the matter with your glass?" "No, sir, she's a good glass and a powerful one," Amos replied, with dignity, "but she ain't moved by trifles."
